

CURRICULUM VITAE OF HPSA'S CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER GEORGE ARREY

George has been the CEO of HPSA for 5 years now. Prior to his work as CEO he also worked as a senior health educator for HPSA for a few years. George has always been interested in health education, even when he was managing his own small business before working for the Health Promoters.

Apart from his management and financial duties, George is currently involved in leading the development of a new HPSA programme, namely Educational Theatre. He has many network connections with local communities, especially those we work in such as Kayamandi, Mfuleni, and Khayelitsha.

He is also a leader of a local church and is very involved in their music programme. He is married with 3 young children. George has a B A in Health Sciences and Social Services, from the University of South Africa, Pretoria. He successfully completed the following modules:
